Under Graduate (Hons.) in Persian Under Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) Programme

Applicability:

The regulation shall apply to the Under Graduate (Hons) in Persian programme from the session 2023 - 27

• Minimum Eligibility for admission:

The candidate who wishes to take admission Under Graduate Programme he must pass Intermediate or equivalent examination from a recognized Board/ Institution including Madrasa Board of all states with minimum 45 percentage marks for General / OBC candidates and 40% for SC/ST candidates or equivalent grade.

• Programme Objectives:

- The main purpose to design Under Graduate Programme in Persian is to develop the skills of the students in translation and interpretation and to make him proficient communicators in Persian to communicate our culture and literary values of our Country to Persian Speaking Countries.
- To train the students for discharging duties as a language experts in both public and private sectors and deciphering Persian sources. As we know that a large number of land records, documents, farmans related to and art and culture sources of medieval period of India are still in Persian language.
- After Completing the Course the learners will be enable to perform their duties and responsibilities as a good citizen and they will contribute their knowledge to the building of society and nation. Besides this, Persian literature has the richest sources of art and culture, humanism and Sufism which are available in different libraries of the country till day. So, the present course is thus designed to inculcate a student with a full sense of human values and academic excellence which will be beneficial to the society and the nation. It is fact that promoting of humanism can only be achieved through an intensive approach of literature.
- The curriculum focuses on the lingual as well as moral and ethical aspects of Persian literature that would help an individual to cope up with the challenges of the contemporary world.

Programme Outcomes:

One of the prime objectives of the course is to introduce the learner about the universality of Persian literature in dealing with global issues like degradation of human values and challenges of materialism etc. Hence the course primarily stresses on the comprehensive aspect of literature.

Therefore, utmost care has been taken in choosing the prescribed text which has both lingual and didactic features. A greater comprehension of language would result in a greater depth in perception and appreciation of literature, culture and human progress. Moreover, the course takes into its gamut the employability factors of the students and hence offers courses in modern language teachings that would surely help them to serve in the archives, museums, national libraries and Persian departments of the universities. The programme would also train the students to work on the Persian manuscripts which are preserved in hundreds and thousands of precious copies in the oriental libraries in the World.

Specific Programme Outcomes:

The Department has a distinct vision for Under Graduate programme offered by it in Persian language and literature. It aims to develop in the learners to understand Persian Language in a wide range of contexts. After the completion of Under Graduate in Persian a student will be capable enough to discharge his responsibilities as a language expert/linguist/interpreter in various ministries of the government of India viz. the Ministry of External Affairs, the Ministry of Culture, the Ministry of Defense etc. Moreover, a student completing this course can work in various archives, museums, oriental libraries, Ministry of Information and Broadcasting in his capacity as a language expert or as an epigraphist etc. The course is also directed to train an individual for jobs in private sectors. The didactic aspect of the classical literature would take care of the moral and ethical side of an individual in the discharging of his responsibilities in a transparent way. While modern language and literature course is designed to help an individual in his pursuit of a job in private sectors Overall, the course guides to the employability skill of an individual in various spheres.
